BOXING CARNIVAL.

Large Audience at the Elgin Opera House Witness Five Exciting Contests.

The boxing entertainment at the Elgin opera house last evening was attended by nearly one thousand admirers of the sport; probably 250 from Dundee attending. Announcer Kinnane called the first bout on at 9:30, Malachy Hogan of Chicago, acting as referee, and Pat Hurley, official timekeeper.

Young Scotty of Dundee, boxed with Cally Williams of Elgin, 6 three minute rounds, and the bout was decided a draw.

Walter Stage of Dundee, met Young Mack of Elgin, and was awarded the decision, Stage doing by far the cleverest work—outpointing his opponent in every round.

Young Savage and Young Murphy of Elgin gave a clever exhibition of sparring for six rounds, and while the former was declared the winner, the decision should have been declared a draw.

The Auringer-Clark go was not pulled off—Auringer failing to materialize.

The bout between Sleepy Goodale of Elgin, and Will Stage of Dundee, was fast from the sound of the gong. Goodale had by far the better of the

A silver wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bollman on Wednesday evening in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. About fifty guests attended. Rev. Mr. Steege delivered an address and Rev. Nuetzel, who married them twenty-five years ago, read the same address that he gave at that time. The rooms were handsomely decorated with wild flowers. Two tables were spread, which were also beautifully decorated. Misses Clara Steege and Ella Wendt rendered a couple of solos in their usually capable manner, and Misses Anna Wenholz and Flora Bollman charmingly rendered instrumental selections. The host and hostess were recipients of many handsome presents, among them a silver tea set, presented by Aug Toebel, a silver water set and numerous other valuable donations. Those present from abroad were: Mrs. Nuetzel and two daughters, Mrs. Louis Steege and several others.

GREAT REVIVAL SERVICES.

Rarely, if ever, has Bedford witnessed such a religious awakening among the churches as is now going on in the Presbyterian church. The church of God is being shaken to its very foundation, and people are anxiously inquiring, "what must I do to be saved?" The church itself is being awakened from its lethargy and beginning to show zeal and interest that have for so long lain dormant, and the prospect for a true religious revival was never better. For nearly a week has Evangelist Sunday held vast audiences spell bound by his truthful, logical, convincing arguments for "Christ and Him crucified." He has a peculiar method of his own of shooting straight from the shoulder deep down into the hearts of his listeners. He is no more backward in telling church members their faults than he is in commending their virtues.—Bedford (Ia.) Democrat.

CASH PRICES.

At the chrysanthemum show to be given next autumn, the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church offers the following cash prizes:

For the best collection of 6 plants, $1; second prize, 50c.

For the best individual plant, $1; second prize, 50c.

For the best single blossom, $1; second prize, 50c.

All plants are to be raised by those entering them for competition and the competition is open to any one (not a professional florist) residing in the township. To secure the best results the young plants should be set out by the middle of May.

Those planning to compete are requested to notify the chairman of the committee. F. W. HALL.

Get your chrysanthemums of Geo. A. Sawyer and get them started early for the show. 2tp-9

A FEW CENTS A PAIR.

More we pay for our 98c kid glove than other stores do. It don't leave us so large a profit, but it allow's the manufacturer to put in better material and give more time to its manufacture. Then, again, our gloves are made from whole skins, not pieces, thus insuring even weight, color and even wear, and an expert fitter fits every pair perfectly. THEO. F. SWAN, Elgin.

CHILDREN'S TRIMMED HATS.

Every knowp idea for the little ones. Our children's hats have created a sensation. Everybody is talking about them. We've made them a special feature of our department this season and the prices are lower than you have paid for ordinary inferior sorts and styles. THEO. F. SWAN, Elgin.
