The hearing was called to order by FRVPLD Board President, Marge Skold, who asked for any input from those in attendance.

Billita Jacobsen took the podium and stated she noticed a balance of $1 million dollars in the Capital Account. She requested that the board stay within the existing budget and spend only this amount on any future building/renovation expenses currently being considered. She thanked the board for the opportunity to be heard.

President Skold asked if there was any further discussion or comments from anyone. No further discussion or comments were made. The hearing was adjourned by voice vote at 7:05 pm.
